The didactic part of the surgical module (second module) was conducted at the Dept. of Oral Surgery from 28th March till 29th March 2019. The lectures were covered by our staff prior to the hands-on workshop as a 2 - full day program.

This time, we had developed a protocol, where the delegates had to give an exam before taking up the 2nd module. This time we collected feedback in an e-format for the lectures & the workshop conducted.

The study material for all the lectures of Modules 1 & 2 were mailed to all the delegates well in advance to facilitate learning & in a process of providing study material to the participants.

The surgical hands-on module was conducted from 8th -10th April 2019, which gave a wonderful hands-on training to all the delegates by making them place implants on dummy mandibles as well as on patients. This module was a coordinated effort of four departments: Departments of Oral Medicine and Radiology, Oral Surgery, Periodontics and Prosthodontics conducted with the help of renowned external resource persons Dr Vinayak Gowda and Dr. Deepak. The programme was inaugurated by the Chief Guest, Dr. A.N.N Murthy, honourable Vice Chancellor of DSU and our beloved Secretary Shri Galiswamy as guest of honour. Dr ANN Murthy has helped by signing an MOU for a collaborative project with Aerospace Engineering, DSU.

In 3 days we placed 20 implants as compared to placement of only 30 implants in 5 whole years between 2013 to 2018. All 3 days, cases done by delegates were guided by the resource persons by personally being present in the Minor-OT giving inputs for the implant placement & helping them with each step right from case of the surgical procedure.

Some interesting & challenging cases were chosen for live demonstration by the resource persons Dr Vinayak Gowda and Dr Deepak Shiva who efficiently demonstrated their skills with detailed explanation of each step. The department of Oral Surgery has now been equipped with a TV & facility to project live, the proceedings from the Minor-OT, which was utilized well for the 2-way interaction between the resource persons & the delegates. It was a unique & memorable experience for the delegates at DSCDS, which all of them enjoyed thoroughly, where many questions raised by the delegates were clarified by the resource persons.

2. Dr Puja C Yavagal, MDS. Professor, Dept. of Public Health Dentistry, Bapuji Dental College and Hospital.
3. Dr Shyam Sivasamy, MDS, PGDB (Madurai Kamraj University). Reader, Meenakshi Ammal Dental College, Chennai, Tamil Nadu.

We from the Department of Public Health Dentistry, DSCDS are proud to report you that we successfully organized and conducted a WORKSHOP ON CRITICAL EVALUATION OF SCIENTIFIC ARTICLES on the 30th and 31st of January 2019 at the Histology Lab, Dental College Building, DSI. We thank the management and Principal profusely for providing the facilities and encouragement to do the workshop.

The proposal for this program was first suggested in a staff meeting, in the department of Public Health Dentistry. Our intention was to conduct a research program which would be a continuation of our first workshop on Health Research Methodology and Health Statistics. The workshop was designed to help every participant to apply the knowledge of basics of Health research and Health statistics into application through group activities. The idea was to practice the principle of 'Learning by Doing'. This can also drive the concepts of research methodology and biostatistics deep into the realm of 'Known' in the delegates.

The registration for the research program was first opened up to the faculty and PG students of our college, till 18th Jan 2019. Later, the brochure was sent through emails and whatsapp groups to the Heads of the Department, Dept. of Public Health Dentistry of other dental colleges in Karnataka. We had an overwhelming response from the staff of different specialties from our college, and around 10 staff from other dental colleges across Bangalore. One staff also from Rama Dental College, Kanpur attended the program. Around 55 postgraduates from the Department of Public Health Dentistry of different dental colleges in Karnataka also attended the research program and workshop. We stopped the

All the participants were assigned into seven different groups for active learning and discussion. This workshop enabled the delegates to develop critical evaluation skills for different study designs and will help them in future to convert the descriptive journal clubs into critical evaluation journal clubs. Articles with different study designs were critically evaluated using different check lists like; (STROBE, CASP, PRISMA and JEDAD). Group activities were carefully designed to facilitate learning. The delegates participated with lot of enthusiasm. The sessions were very interactive and productive discussions happened between the participants and the resource persons. Google forms for feedback were sent to all the participants with a request to sincerely send their feedback without fail on both days.
